

SaskEnergy

Board of Directors

Véronique Loewen
Saskatoon, Saskatchewan

Véronique Loewen was appointed to SaskEnergy's Board of Directors in November 2018.

Véronique is Communications Manager for Orano Canada Inc. (formerly AREVA Resources Canada Inc.) one of the world's leading producers of uranium. She is also Owner and Principal of Verolingo Communications, an English/French translation services provider. In her role at Orano, she develops, implements and evaluates strategies and programs to support the corporate brand, inform stakeholders of Orano initiatives, policies and operational activities, and foster two-way communication. She holds a Master of Business Administration degree in Executive Management.

Véronique is involved in several charitable and professional organizations, including Women in Mining/Women in Nuclear Saskatchewan and the Saskatchewan Mining Association. She is a member of the Elizabeth Fry Society of Saskatchewan Board of Directors and past member of the Saskatchewan Transportation Company (STC) Board of Directors.

